Federal Direct Loans, subsidized and unsubsidized, are available for eligible students in some programs. The direct loan must be repaid. The subsidized loan is need-based; the unsubsidized loan is not. The interest on the subsidized loan is paid by the federal government while you are in school. The unsubsidized loan is not need based. Borrowers are responsible for the interest accrued on the loan while they are in school.

The following programs qualify:

- Undergraduate Status Direct Loan (subsidized and unsubsidized)
  - Pre-Medical & General Science Program
- Graduate Status Direct Loan (unsubsidized)
  - Landscape Architecture Program
  - Paralegal Training Program
  - UCLA Post Baccalaureate Program in Classics

To ensure the availability of funds by the time your program begins, you must initiate the application process four months prior to the start date of the quarter in which you plan to enroll.
ABOUT UCLA EXTENSION
UCLA Extension is the continuing education division of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). We offer courses evenings and weekends in Westwood Hills, and Downtown L.A., plus online classes available around the globe. Courses range from business, arts, engineering, and IT to entertainment studies, public policy, public health, the humanities and more. Explore UCLA Extension at uclaextension.edu.

Private Alternative Education Loans
Many lending institutions offer private alternative loans to help finance the cost of a student’s education. Some of the loans offer great flexibility and a fast pre-approval process, two attractive benefits to students in adult continuing education. Most UCLA Extension courses and programs qualify.

To ensure the availability of funds by the time your course begins, you must initiate the application process two months prior to the start date of the quarter in which you plan to enroll.

California residents are eligible to apply for private alternative loans for online courses. Recipients are required to pick up loan checks in person at the UCLA Student Loan Services Office.

Check with your own bank or go online to compare the loans of different lenders.

Endowed Scholarships
There are a limited number of these scholarships available once you have begun a program. Refer to the General Information Section of the UCLA Extension catalog or visit uclaextension.edu/financialaid.

Extension Grants
A very limited number of extension grants are available each quarter for students who establish a financial need. Up to $400 in enrollment fees can be waived under this program in no more than one course per quarter total. Extension Grants are not available for 700-900 series courses, XLC courses, online courses, or programs eligible for federal financial aid.

Veterans Educational Benefits
Certain UCLA Extension certificates are approved under the Veterans Educational Benefits program. For more information visit uclaextension.edu/financialaid.

Students who are eligible for Veterans Educational Benefits should determine the benefits and obtain authorization from the appropriate Veterans Administration Office prior to enrolling.

AmeriCorps Awards
Each year, Americans of diverse ages and backgrounds engage in intensive volunteer service to the country via AmeriCorps, a network of national service programs developed to meet critical needs in education, public safety, health, and the environment.

AmeriCorps members serve through nonprofits, public agencies, and faith-based organizations. They tutor and mentor youth, build affordable housing, teach computer skills, clean parks and streams, run after-school programs, and help communities respond to disasters.

On completion of successful service, AmeriCorps alumni can elect to be provided with an education award. Former members are eligible to use their educational award payments to pay for UCLA Extension certificates, course sequences, or individual classes. For further information on AmeriCorps visit Americorps.org.
