

The Henri Bollinger Memorial Scholarship

For Students Enrolled in the Strategic Branding and Public Relations Certificate in Business, Management, and Legal Programs

Application Information

The Henri Bollinger Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 2019 by the Pansky Family in tribute to beloved and respected UCLA Extension instructor, the late Henri Bollinger.

Henri Bollinger greatly contributed to the public relations program at UCLA Extension by developing entertainment public relations specialization. He provided crucial guidance in evolving the curriculum so courses were timely, relevant, practical, and reflected industry best practices.

The Henri Bollinger Memorial Scholarship provides funding for an individual who has a passion for continuing education and professional development in public relations and who is working toward completion of the Strategic Branding and Public Relations Certificate. Beginning in 2019, UCLA Extension will award one scholarship per year, up to $800, to cover the cost of one course in the Strategic Branding and Public Relations Certificate offered by UCLA Extension.
