

The Patricia and Michael Hausknost Scholarship at UCLA Extension

For Students Enrolled in the Personal Financial Planning or Accelerated Personal Financial Planning Programs in the Business, Management, and Legal Programs Department

Application Information

The Patricia and Michael Hausknost Scholarship Fund was established in 2022 to provide financial assistance and greater access to education for female students entering the industry while pursuing their careers in personal financial planning.

The Patricia and Michael Hausknost Scholarship provides funding for qualified UCLA Extension students who have a passion for continuing education and professional development and who are working toward completion of either one of the Personal Financial Planning Certificates. Beginning in 2022, UCLA Extension will award a scholarship annually to cover the cost of completing the final four courses in one of these programs.

Facts About the Patricia and Michael Hausknost Scholarship

- Each scholarship award provides up to $4,000 to be applied to course fees in the Personal Financial Planning Certificate or Accelerated Personal Financial Planning Certificate at UCLA Extension
- The scholarship is not transferable and expires one (1) year after the award date if not used.
- The scholarship remains in effect until the awardee completes the program if they continue to make progress towards completion of the certificate within the five-year shelf life.
- No cash award will be given. Unused scholarship amounts will remain in the scholarship fund to be used for future Patricia and Michael Hausknost Scholarship recipients.
- Submitted applications that are incomplete, late, or from students who are not eligible will not be considered for an award. Multiple submissions will not be reviewed. Applications will not be returned.
- The applicant selected for the scholarship will be notified via email.
- The scholarship recipient may utilize their award to offset course fees beginning the following quarter.
